

Appointment of Commissioner's Chief of Staff

Date: Mon, 7 Nov 2011 12:07:03 -0500

I am pleased to announce the appointment of a new Chief of Staff for the FDA. Lisa Barclay is currently a partner at the law firm of Zuckerman Spaeder in Washington, DC. A graduate of George Washington University and Georgetown University Law Center, many of you may know Lisa from her previous time at FDA, in the 1990s, with the Commissioner's Office of Policy. Lisa has also served on Capitol Hill and was a law clerk for Senior Judge William B. Bryant of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. I hope you will join me in welcoming Lisa back to the agency.

I would also like to take this occasion to thank Molly Muldoon for her service to FDA, first as my previous Chief of Staff and more recently as our acting Chief Operating Officer. As Chief of Staff, Molly worked tirelessly to make sure that my needs were met while also supporting the broader agency mission. I cannot overstate how much we all benefitted from Molly's hard work and dedication.

Margaret Hamburg, M.D.

Commissioner of Food and Drugs
