

Summary Chart of Changes OSHA Proposed for the Chemical-Specific Standards

This chart provides a list of chemical-specific standards and the type of changes OSHA proposed across these standards to help quickly identify which types of proposed updates apply to each chemical-specific standard.

	Rely on Existing Provisions in 1910.134			Increase Flexibility While Providing Equal Protection			Allow Use of Additional Particulate Filters
	When Respirators are Used	Respirator Training Requirements	Medical Evaluations	Move to APF based requirement	Allow half mask and eye or skin protection	Allow alternate canister locations
Formaldehyde	X
Methylene Chloride	X		X		X
Methylenedianiline	X						X
Benzene	X					X
Ethylene Oxide	X				X	X
13 Carcinogens				X
1,3-Butadiene	X			X	X
Inorganic Arsenic	X	X				X	X
Cadmium	X	X			X		X
Lead	X	X			X		X
Asbestos	X	X		X			X