

Senator Bennet released the following statement on the announcement:

"As Coloradans are reviewing health plans to make the best choices for their families, they shouldn't have to decipher pages and pages of bureaucratic jargon. These new rules will help consumers understand exactly what they are buying, so they can make informed decisions."