AIHA® Announces Open Registration for PCIH 2011 Advance registration ends October 7th

FAIRFAX, VA (July 20, 2011) — The American Industrial Hygiene Association® (AIHA) has opened the registration for the Professional Conference on Industrial Hygiene (PCIH) 2011 in Baltimore, MD, November 3 – 9. The theme of PCIH 2011 is “Navigating New Opportunities”. Sponsored by AIHA’s Academy of Industrial Hygiene, PCIH provides a unique opportunity for occupational and environmental health and safety (OEHS) professionals to stay abreast of current trends, while finding solutions to everyday issues.

PCIH 2011 will be presenting exciting new features, including:

- New tracks focusing on Leadership, Public Safety & Health, Stewardship & Sustainability, Exposure Risk Assessment & Management (ERAM), and Interactive/Dynamic Activities
- 3 half-day PDCs on Wednesday, allowing the opportunity to earn more CM points
- A stellar General Session lineup:
  - John Howard, JD, MD, CDC/NIOSH, Washington, DC
  - The Honorable Rafael Moure-Eraso, PhD, CIH, U.S. Chemical Safety and Hazard Investigation Board
  - John J. Resta, Army Institute of Public Health

PCIH continues to provide unique experiences for OEHS professionals:

- Cutting-edge platform sessions
- Intimate group discussions with experts in the field
- Workshops, interactive breakfast and lunch discussions, award lectures, sessions with in-depth presentations and analysis, plus expanded technical tours
- An opportunity to earn up to 8.02 CM points
- A great opportunity to network in a collaborative, intimate and engaging environment

Additionally, poster abstract submissions will be accepted until August 19. To submit a proposal or to register for PCIH, please visit <http://www.pcih2011.org>.
